About Us

Artists To Watch (ATW) is a well-established greeting card company that collaborates with independent fine artists to create beautiful greeting cards that carry good wishes into the world. You can find our greeting cards all over the U.S. and Canada in boutique gift shops, card shops, paper shops, co-ops, grocery stores, book stores, and more. We proudly offer greeting cards for most occasions: from birthday and encouragement to thinking of you and sympathy. We look forward to continuing our work with you, and we welcome our new customers to share in the artistry of our greeting card line.

We believe in connection, and we know how special it is to send and receive a handwritten greeting card in the mail. ATW values all the relationships with our artists, our vendors, our sales reps, our shops and customers, and within our staff. We know that by being true to our intentions of open communication, integrity, and respect, ATW crafts greeting cards that everyone who is part of our process can be proud of. From receiving beautiful artwork from our independent fine artists, through the many stages of production and sales, to your shop's order being packed with care at our warehouse, we center connection as the guiding value of our company.

ATW strives to be environmentally conscious by using recycled content paper, vegetable-based inks, and printing in our hometown, Minneapolis, to reduce our carbon footprint. Sustainability is at the top of our list. We use only responsibly sourced paper in the making of our cards, boxed notes and packaging. We respect our world and environment by recycling, reducing, and reusing at every opportunity!

We launched another brand of gifts and greeting cards called Fun Folks! ATW created Fun Folks to add a fun and playful line to our offerings. With Fun Folks, we are focused on inclusion and adding positive messages to our ever-changing world. Join in the fun!

Thank you for being part of Artists to Watch and Fun Folks! Please enjoy our catalog.

Sam Zimmerman / Zhaawanoogizhik Grand Portage Ojibwe (Direct Descendant)

His work explores his Ojibwe heritage, his learnings and experiences in nature upon his return to the Grand Portage reservation, while preserving shared oral histories. He shares his experiences with the animals, bird, fish and plant relatives while incorporating the natural landscape of Lake Superior's North Shore. Sam focuses on continuing the Anishinaabe tradition of storytelling, embedding the themes of environmental stewardship and conservation of the North Shore through his studio and public art commissions. He has completed public art pieces for the Grand Portage Tribal Nation, Chik-Wauk Museum and Nature Center, Voyageur National Park, the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee, Minnesota Twins, and the Duluth and Grand Marais communities as a means to celebrate and share Ojibwe culture and language.

He recently was selected, along with 11 other artists and makers, to participate in a statewide pilot program, Minnesota Parks Artists in Residence (MNPiR). In this 2024-2025 pilot, artists serve as partners to and ambassadors for the parks and contribute not just art, but ideas. This residency—Minnesota's first statewide artist in residence program—is modeled on artist residencies in government, which embed artists into public systems. Embedding an artist in a park or a park system will allow the selected artists to apply their own creative perspectives and skills to foster a greater sense of belonging. Sam was the artist in residence at Tettegouche State Park in Silver Bay, Minnesota from fall 2024 through fall 2025.

He has been the recipient of grant awards from the Minnesota State Arts Board, Arrowhead Regional Arts Council, Northland Foundation Maada'ooking, and Duluth Superior Community Foundation. His most recent art, bilingual coffee table book, is a collection of paintings and stories from his first year of creating along the northern shore of Lake Superior, Following My Spirit Home, published by Blackbear and Blueberries Publishing (April 2022). Following My Spirit Home was a silver finalist for a Midwest Book Award in June 2023. His newest illustration project is a bilingual Ojibwe/English children's book: How the Birds Got Their Songs was published by Minnesota Historical Society Press.

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And you are the one who'll decide where to go.

The Trapper's Daughter Collection

The Trapper's Daughter travels with ravens, owls, raccoons, bears, and the occasional moose and wolf.

She is a powerful young woman who lives in the woods and on the water, having adventures with her animal familiars. This box set features one of each of her stories for a total of 8 unique notecards in this special collection.

The Artists

ADAM SWANSON

Cloquet, Minnesota

Instagram: @AdamSwansong

Adam's work addresses the future, the fragility of the human presence, the perseverance of nature and the underlying threads of danger woven through societies.

He believes there is a deep relationship between art and science and that the more we learn about our surroundings, where we came from and who we are, the more likely we will be to thrive in a universe of endless possibilities.

ADAM TURMAN

Minneapolis, Minnesota

Instagram: @AdamTurman
Photographer: Easton Green, MN Daily

Adam Turman is a Minneapolis artist, illustrator, muralist, and screen printer who got his start as an artist by making gig posters for bands coming through popular Twin Cities venues.

After working as an in-house graphic designer for the University of Minnesota, Adam took his studio practice full-time in 2003.

When you think Twin Cities art, you think of Adam Turman. Notably, his work celebrates a love of the great outdoors. Adam's murals can be found all over Minnesota and his prints in private collections worldwide.

AKI SOGABE

Bellevue, Washington

Aki was in middle school when she imitated a paper cutting illustration from a newspaper using origami paper. She has continued and introduced kiri-e (paper cutting) to the Pacific Northwest in 1978. Her works are included in the collections of many corporations, organizations, schools and universities. Her public art is installed in the Pike Place Market and Uwajimaya Village in Seattle. She is also known as a children's book illustrator.

AMY RICE

Minneapolis, Minnesota

Instagram: @amyriceart

Beginning with not so traditional printmaking methods (hand-cut stencils and Japanese Gocco printmaking toy) mixed media artist Amy makes one-of-a-kind pieces by employing acrylic, gouache, ink and collage.

Her canvases range from weathered wood panels and found objects to antique envelopes, age-worn love letters, and journal pages.

ANGIE PICKMAN

Lawrence, Kansas

Instagram: @angiepickman

Angie Pickman, who resides in Lawrence, Kansas, is a nationally recognized cut paper artist who combines the art of traditional paper cutting with collage to create intricately detailed works of art and animations. She received her master's degree in 2004 from Tisch School of the Arts at New York University. She exhibits at galleries and art fairs nationally, does illustration, animation and design work, conducts public presentations on her art, and teaches various art classes and workshops.

BEBE KEITH

St. Paul, Minnesota

Instagram: @bebekeithdesigns

Bebe is a self-taught artist who likes to laugh. She loves creating and is always looking for ways to stretch and grow as an artist and as a human. For years she did stained glass mosaics, but then she tried making a mosaic with paper and now works in paper mosaics. Along with the paper mosaic collages, she is currently creating portraits with watercolors. She has written and illustrated several books. Bebe has done a lot of public artwork as well, and her designs can be found in hospitals, airports, event centers, libraries, colleges and more!

The Artists

CC BARTON

Denver, Colorado

CC believes that imagination is the most important tool in her kit. It informs every aspect of her work, from the elements of composition to the choice of colors in her palette and finally, how she chooses to portray her subjects.

CC's work and ideas come from her desire to make something beautiful. She hopes that her work will in some way enrich the lives of others.

CHAMIRA YOUNG

Port Huron, Michigan

Instagram: @chamiralocs

Chamira believes that art can be a powerful tool for healing and comfort. It can turn a cold sterile hospital into a warm therapeutic setting or a bare home into a warm sanctuary. She is constantly inspired by God's creation all around her in the natural world.

Chamira received her Bachelor of Fine Arts at the University of Michigan. She currently uses a combination of watercolor, photography and digital techniques, the result having an expressive, emotional effect.

DAN WIEMER

Red Wing, Minnesota

Dan is a landscape artist capturing his love of the natural world.

Dan trained as a graphic designer (with a BA from Iowa State University), and was past president of the Minnesota Watercolor Society. He plays with shapes and textures, finding the rhythms in a scene. Working with acrylic and watercolor he interpretively distills, stylizes, and translates when he paints. "For me, the process is the product. I want my work to reflect an energy and directness."

HEATHER RENAUX

Minneapolis, Minnesota

Instagram: @heatherrenauxart

Heather works to impart a sense of magic in her visual storytelling; a blend of edginess and whimsy. Capturing a feeling in her paintings is important to her. To capture a feeling and a story is her ultimate goal, the thing she is always working toward. These two elements combined, narrative and emotion, pull viewers into a painting and beg them to spend some time there. Making this connection with her audience is how she experiences purpose in her life.

IRIS SCOTT

Youngsville, New Mexico

Instagram: @IrisScottart

Iris has received worldwide acclaim for her unique technique of oil finger painting. She is known best for her iconic shakin' wet dogs. Her repertoire of subjects is varied, however lush movement seems to permeate nearly all her compositions. Iris's portfolio is optimistic, colorful, and nature-focused at a time when the art world is finally beginning to grow tired of minimalism. Iris's work is ahead of the curve as her paintings echo the most important force in the universe: love.

JIM BRANDENBURG

Ely, Minnesota

Instagram: @jimbrandenburg

Jim's stunning photographs capture the beauty and magic of the natural world. He was one of the premier wildlife photographers in the world and a dedicated environmentalist.

He has won numerous international awards for his work. Jim derives intense satisfaction from his life-long commitment to explore and understand the wilderness.

Jim received a National Geographic lifetime achievement award in 2023.

Jim Brandenburg passed away in April, 2025. We continue to honor his legacy through our greeting cards.

The Artists

JULIE PASCHKIS

Seattle, Washington

Instagram: @juliepaschkis

Julie Paschkis is an award-winning illustrator of more than 20 books. Viewers will see her love of pattern and folk art.

Julie attended Germantown Friends School (Ringerike Folkeshogskole) in Norway, Cornell University and received a BFA from the School for American Craftsmen at Rochester Institute of Technology.

KAREN SIKIE

Inglewood, California

Instagram: @karensikie

Karen is the gifted artist behind Paper Mosaic Studio. Her work with decorative papers as a framer inspired her to develop a highly specialized form of collage she calls paper mosaics.

Nature's infinite array of beautiful forms and patterns are Karen's muse. Using plexiglass as her canvas, Karen creates an aesthetic feast for the eyes.

THE KENSPECKLE LETTERPRESS

Duluth, Minnesota

Instagram: @thekenspeckleletterpress

Rick Allen, along with partner and wife Marian Lansky, are The Kenspeckle Letterpress.

Using an unholy combination of 19th century printing presses and 21st century digital technology they produce a miscellany of curious engravings, eccentric broadsheets, tasteful novelties, and printed ephemera. Their work has reached and perplexed many diverse audiences.

LAURA WILDER

Rochester, New York

Instagram: @laurawilderart

Laura is inspired by the designs of the Arts and Crafts movement. She is a Roycroft Renaissance Master Artisan.

Her art explores aspects of a simpler, more satisfying life, especially the serenity found in animals and landscapes and the profound words of some of our greatest writers.

Laura has won many awards and prestigious commissions for her work, which can be seen at shows, in galleries, and in stores nationwide.

MAGGIE RUTHERFORD

Bothell, Washington

Instagram: @maggierutherfordart

Born and raised in Washington, Maggie received her BFA in painting and drawing from the University of Washington in 2009. Working primarily in watercolor and gouache, she creates illustrations that are inspired by the Pacific Northwest, the cycles of the seasons, and the wild woodland garden that she lovingly maintains.

Through her work, Maggie hopes to reflect the power and presence of the natural world, celebrating not only nature's grand moments but also its dear and intimate details.

MYRIAD SHADES ART

Sunnyvale, California

Instagram: @myriad.shades.art

Radhika's vision as an artist is quite simple. She aspires to create delicately vibrant and expressive nature-inspired art, in its very essence, that not only brings a sense of calm but also imparts ample warmth and positive vibes. Flowers and nature inspire her and she strives to capture their simplicity and elegance. She works with watercolors and likes to keep her compositions simple, loose and delightful.

The Artists

NICK WROBLEWSKI

Duluth, Minnesota

Instagram: @woodcutnick

Nick is a Midwest-based printmaker specializing in hand-cut woodblock prints. His images are depictions of the natural world, carved from large blocks of wood and printed one color at a time.

He uses a traditional method of carving away more material as the print progresses, resulting in the eventual elimination of the textured image on the block.

He is interested in art that is hand-hewn, that shows the gesture of a landscape.

PATTI BALLARD

Orlando, Florida

Instagram: @pbsartstudio

Patti has always been an artist. Tracing, coloring and imitating cartoons from TV are some of her earliest memories.

Patti's mixed media art ranges from gouache paintings to torn paper collages and a little bit of everything in between. Her love of grunge, texture and anything vintage, as well as her obsession with paper, drives her to incorporate all of these elements into her self-described quirky realistic and whimsical art.

SHACHI KALE

Chandler, Arizona

Instagram: @shachidreams

Shachi is a visual storyteller, graphic designer, and children's book illustrator. Shachi uses watercolors, acrylics, embroidery, and digital arts. She is fascinated by folk art from around the world, the use of flat colors, simple perspective, and storytelling. She is also drawn to Indian miniature art and the patterns and decorative elements used in them. The vibrant and rich colors of her palette are a legacy of her Indian heritage, and the narrative elements are an influence from her work as a children's book illustrator.

VALERIE LORIMER

Naperville, Illinois

Instagram: @vlorimerart

Valerie's artwork is often described as whimsical, intuitive, and spiritual. Valerie creates her artwork on art paper and panel using a combination of ink, pastel, and illustration markers. Valerie has received numerous awards and her artwork has been featured in publications, on book covers, and is featured in the Marriott Naperville and the Nido Bianco Gallery in Three Oaks, Michigan.

Valerie says, "Creativity is what fuels my heart and soul - it is, in a sense, spirit and energy."

Thank You to all of our talented artists.

Artists to Watch is ever grateful to showcase and create thoughtful greeting cards with their wonderful art!
